bills. This would be the reasoning on these sections that it does show now the Board of Trustees as the ones that would be acquiring the sites.

SPEAKER: Chair recognizes Senator Clark.

SENATOR CLARK: I'd like to straighten Senator Lewis out on something. I was against both of these projects. I certainly didn't make the motion. As far as the trustees are concerned, that's the way the thing is set up now, until 344 goes through. I'd agree with Senator Warner that it ought to be in 344 if that bill ever survives. It certainly wasn't mine. I couldn't care less.

SPEAKER: Topic under discussion is the Lewis amendment. Any further discussion? Seeing none, Senator Lewis do you wish to close?

SENATOR F. LEWIS: I appreciate ... oh yeah I'm going to close. We're talking about $100 million. We're not going to save two minutes to run out on. It would be the biggest mistake and the biggest criticism in the world if we tried to run through this. It's a third of the entire budget we're going to spend this year. I'm going to close. I appreciate Senator Marvel asking unanimous consent that my amendments be adopted. I presume it was a mistake somewhere. This will correct it. I appreciate his support on the issue. I'd ask for the adoption of the amendment.

SPEAKER: Senator Lewis has closed. The question is ... Senator Koch, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR KOCH: Mr. Speaker, I have an amendment there to Senator Lewis' amendment.

CLERK: I didn't know it was tied into the Lewis amendment. (Read amendment offered by Senator Koch found on page 1688 in Journal).

SPEAKER: Chair recognizes Senator Koch.

SENATOR KOCH: I think that ... Mr. Speaker, members of the body. This merely gets at the problem that we're concerned about. The community colleges are presently in limbo. We really don't know where they are. I think for the good of the bill and everything else that by striking these two sections we have eliminated the problem. If and when the community colleges live as a community or state college, we can come back to this amount of money for planning and whatever it may need.

SPEAKER: Any further discussion on the Koch amendment to the Lewis amendment? Senator Lewis.

SENATOR F. LEWIS: Mr. Chairman, I tried to listen to the amendment. I think I read it. I don't understand how that's an amendment to the amendment.
